To P' Bee+,

Thank you for being both a reliable colleague and friend. It's a shame my time at the BOT was shorter than I expected. I really wish we'd had more time in the work environment. However, I will make sure to reunite with you all regularly.

I remember when it was just P' Go and me, and things were really tough. When you joined, the work got so much better. Also You're one of the few people I can actually talk to about economic theory. Tbh, P' Jong's scatter plot didn't convince me that easing monetary policy would increase household debt at all, but I'm sure your paper will.

Lastly, my contact information is in this file. I'm sure we'll have a chance to meet up again. Also, if you come to Ho Chi Minh City, let me know. I live on the top floor this ice cream shop: Scoopy Ice Cream Nguyn Trãi

Sincerely, Man and a few AIs to make this letter sounds fancy
