To P' Ploy,

Thank you so much for being a very good boss. I'm truly sorry my time at the BOT was shorter than expected. I really wish the timing had been better. If you ever need anything, even after I've left, please don't hesitate to reach out. I'd be happy to help.

In the few months you supervised the team, numerous unexpected tasks arose. However, one thing was clear: you enabled us to accept those unexpected tasks with a smile and a humorous approach. I truly appreciate your unique sense of humor, and your ability to create a relaxing work environment during challenging times. My future career path is still unfolding, and I don't know where it will lead me in the next five years. But if I have the chance to work alongside you again, I know I would feel honored and delighted.

Lastly, I have included my contact information in this file. I am sure we will have the chance to meet. Also, if you come to Ho Chi Minh City, let me know. I live on the top floor this ice cream shop: Scoopy Ice Cream Nguyn Trãi

Sincerely, Man and a few Als to make this letter sounds fancy
