To P' Bew,

It's been a true honor to work with you, and the time together at the ThaiBMA training nearly two years ago, as well as your support during the New Year party.

Here's a little secret: whenever we order food in the group chat and everyone floods the chat with their orders, I always know you'll be the one to efficiently organize the information, conclude everyone's orders in one text message. You bring a valuable perspective to any environment you're in, which is a significant asset.

It's a shame I didn't get to know you better from working together, but I like to think that we can always know more about each other, even if we no longer work in the same setting. If I ever encounter a problem where I feel your perspective would be valuable, I will make sure to text and ask you for advice, and you feel free to do the same.

Lastly, my contact information is in this file. I'm sure we'll have a chance to meet up again. Also, if you come to Ho Chi Minh City, let me know. I live on the top floor this ice cream shop: Scoopy Ice Cream Nguyen Trãi

Sincerely, Man and a few AIs to make this letter sounds fancy
