To N' Poom,

Thank you, truly, for being both a reliable colleague and an even better friend. I'm disappointed my time at the BOT was shorter than I expected. I really think we would have become like brothers if I'd stayed longer. However, if you continue to build your career in finance, I'm sure we'll have the chance to work together again.

I remember when it was just P' Go and me, and things were really difficult. You made such a positive impact when you joined, and work became much better. Your strong work ethic is something I really admire, especially in today's AI-driven world. I'm sure you'll do great at the BOT, or anywhere in finance.

Lastly, my contact information is in this file. I'm sure we'll have a chance to meet up again. If you ever want to catch up or need to consult me on anything, feel free to text me anytime. I'll do the same. Also, if you come to Ho Chi Minh City, let me know. I live on the top floor this ice cream shop: Scoopy Ice Cream Nguyn Trãi

Sincerely, Man and a few AIs to make this letter sounds fancy
