To P' Go,

Thank you so much for being an excellent central banker and a very good friend. You are the most expert in economic theory among those I know personally, and felt comfortable expressing my 'usually incorrect' economic ideas to. It's a shame my time at the BOT was shorter than I expected.

Weirdly, I don't feel too sad saying goodbye to you. I think it's because I'm sure there would be the day when I read something related to economics from some fake internet economist guru and get carried away with ideas like, 'Hey, debt isn't real, money isn't real, banks aren't real places—they're made of cake and chicken breast. Be a real man and spend all your savings on protein.' If that happens, I'll text you to check my thoughts before I borrow a ton of money to buy protein shake.

Lastly, I hope you enjoy the gift and sleep soundly every night. I have included my contact information in this file. I am sure we will have the chance to meet again. Also, if you come to Ho Chi Minh City, let me know. I live on the top floor of this ice cream shop: Scoopy Ice Cream Nguyển Trãi

Sincerely, Man and a few AIs to make this letter sounds fancy
